Feilding is well placed geographically, just 2 hours drive from most of the southern half of the North Island including Hawkes Bay, Lake Taupo, Taranaki, Mt Ruapehu and Wellington (NZ's capital) providing a gateway to the South Island.

The Manawatu District's location offers easy access to four seaports, seven airports, an airforce and large army bases.

The Manawatu District covers an area of 2,780 square kilometres and is bounded by two rivers (the Rangitikei in the north west and the Manawatu in the south east), the Ruahine Ranges to the east and the Tasman Sea to the west.

Feildings population is 13,641, while the Manawatu District has a population of 27,510.

Our nearest city, Palmerston North (only 19kms from Feilding), has a population of over 76,000, providing extra employment opportunities and easy access to all the city facilities.

Your first stop shop for information and bookings on what to see and do around Manawatu and throughout New Zealand.
